

AEV Catering Working Group - why should you become a member?

Do you work within the catering / hospitality departments at your venue? Are you interested in meeting with peers carrying out similar roles across various different venues? Do you want to share knowledge and experiences?

If you have answered yes to the above questions, you should consider joining the AEV Catering Working Group who meet twice a year to discuss the ever changing needs and provision of catering and other related topics, together with the eGuide and legal changes.

In recent years the group have completely re-worked the Catering section of the eGuide, which has been positively welcomed by users of the eGuide. The eGuide is a best practice guidance document for the application of regulations at UK event venues - to view the eGuide click here.

The group are always looking to recruit new members, so don't delay and contact AEV's Membership Executive Dani Bull on dani@aev.org.uk or 01442 285811, if you are interested in joining the group or hearing some further information.

Here are some of the benefits current members gain from being part of this group:

"Being part of the Catering Working Group has opened my eyes to opportunities and ideas to bring back to the business"

"I find great value from sitting down with my peers, sharing information and ideas"

"Learning how venues operate in different parts of the UK is a huge benefit to me and my business"

"It's reassuring to hear that other venues are facing similar issues - regardless of venue size or location"

"Extremely beneficial to be able to discuss and plan for, current and impending changes to Food Legislation and FSA consultations"

"It is great to come back to my venue with new and fresh ideas"

"Having a support network has been fantastic"

"It's beneficial to be able to share and discuss accurate attendance figures for events, and the impact of inaccurate figures"

"I always find it interesting to attend other venues to compare food offerings and presentation"
